JUROR QUESTIONNAIRE
PRELIMINARY INSTRUCTIONS

Upon your oath or affirmation, you must give true and complete answers to all questions. These questions are not meant to ask unnecessarily about personal matters. Rather, these questions will help the Court determine whether you are able to sit as a juror in deciding this case and will also provide information about you as a juror to help the parties select a jury.

Remember there are no “right” or “wrong” answers; there are only truthful answers.

THE COURT INSTRUCTS YOU NOT TO DISCUSS THE QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS WITH FELLOW JURORS. IT IS VERY IMPORTANT THAT YOUR ANSWERS BE YOUR OWN INDIVIDUAL ANSWERS. Please try to write as legibly as possible. It is very important that the answers be yours and yours alone.

JUROR NO. _____

PART I: HARDSHIP

Jury selection will begin on October 18, 2017 and the trial is expected to begin immediately thereafter. Once testimony begins we anticipate the case should last approximately five weeks. Trial will be in session, generally speaking, five days per week from 9:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. The trial will recess for national and major religious holidays.

If you are selected as a juror, you will be required to be present for the taking of testimony for as long as the case lasts. You will go home every day after court.

The Court views service on a jury in a federal criminal trial to be one of the highest duties of citizenship. Mere inconvenience of jury service will not be sufficient to excuse a prospective juror.

1. Do you have a financial hardship that would prevent you from serving as a juror in this case?
